Christmas in the BLACK FOREST

Tuesday 21st December 2010 - 8 days ~ 7 nights

The Black Forest is a wooded mountain range in Southwestern Germany. It is bordered by the Rhine Valley to the west and the south and is known as an area of outstanding beauty and tranquility. Oberharmersbach is a quiet town in the heart of the Black Forest situated in the upper region of the Harmersbach Brook and is surrounded by beautiful tree laden mountains. There are many small quiet typically southern German towns in the surrounding region which is an excellent location for stunning scenery and many inviting 'Stuben' offering good local produce and of course schnapps! During our Christmas Break, we can indulge in Welcome Drinks, 4 & 5 course Dinners, Traditional Christmas Turkey Lunch & a visit from Santa! Afternoon Teas & entertainment. Midnight Mass will be held in the village church opposite our hotel & excursions around the local area will include a full day exploring the region & subject to weather conditions we shall visit Triberg, home of the tallest waterfall in Germany, the largest collection of Black Forest souvenirs and the world's biggest cuckoo clock! Allowing free time in our resort with an inclusive train ride to a local ceramics factory.

Our main stay hotel is The Hotel Baeren, which has been family owned for 200 years and offers a very warm welcome. The name is roughly translated as the Bear Room from an interesting tale of King Wenceslas IV hiding in the stable in 1376. Situated in the pretty village of Oberharmersbach, this hotel exudes Black Forest charm with its style and quality of decor. The public areas are spacious and welcoming and the large beer garden and terrace are great for enjoying a drink in the evening. The bedrooms are all en suite, traditionally furnished and are accessible by lift. Our overnight hotel is located in the heart of Reims, close to the tourist area around the cathedral. All guest rooms are en suite & our stay is on a half board basis.
